THE WALTER K. MIS LAW SCHOLARSHIP

The Polonia Foundation in Alberta is awarding the Walter K. Mis Law Scholarship in the amount of $3,000.00 (CAD) to a student enrolled in the second or third year of the Juris Doctor program at either the University of Alberta or University of Calgary.

The Walter K. Mis Law Scholarship was created to honour the professional and volunteer work of the late Walter K. Mis, Edmonton Lawyer, University of Alberta Law Professor and longtime President of the Polonia Foundation in Alberta.

The deadline for applications is November 30, 2026.

General Requirements

Applicants must be registered as full-time students in the second or third year of the Juris Doctor program at the University of Alberta or the University of Calgary Law Schools.

Open to students of Polish descent or involved in volunteer work within Canada's Polish community, past or present.

Applicants must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada

Additional selection criteria:

In addition to the General Requirements set out above, consideration will be given to:

- scholastic achievement
- involvement of the applicant in charitable and not-for-profit organizations in Canada.

Scholarships can be granted only once to the same person.

Required documentation

- 1) The Application Form set out below
- 2) Photo ID
- 3) A cover letter setting out reasons why the applicant should receive the scholarship
- 4) A Curriculum Vitae or resume highlighting academic, work, and volunteer history
- 5) Confirmation of full-time enrolment in the second or third year of the Juris Doctor program at the University of Alberta or University of Calgary Law Schools.
- 6) Transcript of marks from the previous year(s) of law school
- 7) Transcripts from the applicant's undergraduate studies.
- 8) One academic reference and one employment or volunteer reference

Applications can be either mailed to the Polonia Foundation in Alberta, PO Box 78153, RPO Callingwood, Edmonton, Alberta, T5T 6A1 or emailed to Polonia.Foundation.President@outlook.com. Applications should only be submitted when ALL required documentation is included.

Once the above documentation is received, the application will undergo a review by the Scholarship Committee of the Polonia Foundation in Alberta. The Scholarship Committee may request an interview with the applicant.

The scholarship recipient will be notified of a positive decision by December 15, 2026. Applicants who do not receive the scholarship will not be notified.
